

2017 JUNE

MONTH IN REVIEW

READY TO ROLL

Adam is set to use his new bike for transportation so he can fill out applications and get a job. Our Cycles for Change program truly does change lives.

INTERNS ADD FUN

Raechel from Notre Dame and Salvador from Northern IL University lead BINGO, a favorite game for guests.

PAUSE FOR APPLAUSE

Art room volunteer, Sue Setter admires and encourages Richard's creativity.

JOB PROMOTION!

Michelle (left) stands proudly as Women's Housing case manager, Crystal, recognizes her for her job promotion. Way to go, Michelle!

GENERATIONS OF CARING

Friends of all ages from St. Mark's Lutheran gather to provide lunch for our guests.

PLANNING AHEAD

Ryan from Home Depot donated 207 pairs of new winter gloves. When the cold winds blow, we'll be ready!

FRIED CHICKEN DINNER

The Varma Family, Dan, Neetika with baby Vivaan, and Anita provided fried chicken dinners for their first lunch at CP. It was a real hit with our guests.

Keys to Success

UNLOCKING THE POTENTIAL OF THOSE WE SERVE

LITTLE HANDS, BIG HEARTS

Brownie Troop #1775 shopped for much needed supplies for our guests, and delivered them with a warm spirit of giving

LUNCH TIME

Monroe Center Church youth served a hearty lunch of bbq sandwiches, chips, fruit to our guests.

WOMEN'S HOUSING CELEBRATION

Cheryl expressed a big "thank you" as she opened birthday presents. She said she had not celebrated her birthday in a long time. It is our joy to celebrate you, Cheryl!

LUNCH AND A SHOW

Case manager, Anthony, and Notre Dame intern, Raechel, provide musical entertainment for guests during lunch.
