CARPENTER'S PLACE MONTH IN REVIEW

HONDA WEEK OF SERVICE

In conjunction with Honda Week of Service, Rockford Process Control staff provided an awesome catered breakfast for our guests!

HELPFUL GUEST INTERNS

Guest interns, James, Scott and Kirk are a terrific trio! They do multiple chores throughout the day and end-of-day cleaning. We're so grateful to them!

GOING ABOVE AND BEYOND

James received an Award of Appreciation and goodie bag for his week of coordinating kitchen duties while staff was on vacation.

FRIENDLY FELINE FRIENDS

Meagan, our Notre Dame summer intern, was delighted to meet friendly visitor, Louie.

EMPLOYMENT SECURED

"You've got the job." Karla of our Women's Housing Program is beaming as she displays her employment certificate. Case manager, Jenny, is thrilled to point out her success!

ANNUAL PICNIC AT LOCKWOOD PARK

A hayride was a great addition to our annual picnic for staff and housing guests.

TRANSPORTATION FOR SUCCESS

Lisa was delighted to obtain a bike, noting it will be much quicker and easier to get around for errands and appointments.

TEACHING LIFE SKILLS

Lynn is a dynamic teacher who shares the essentials of budgeting with guests; 14 attended!

CYCLES FOR CHANGE
 Receiving a bike to get to his roofing job was the highlight of Richard's day!

EMPLOYMENT MILESTONE
 Happy Anniversary! Savannah of our PHP Housing Program celebrated one full year of employment at the Salvation Army Store!

LENDING A HELPING HAND
 Michael's faithful willingness to lend a hand was rewarded when he received the Helpful Attitudes Award. Thank you, Michael!

STAFF RETREAT
 As part of our retreat day, staff enjoyed time bowling! Emily and Cindy (right) were the high scorers, coming in just one point apart.

ON A ROLL
 Nathan is grateful to have a bike to get to appointments and apply for jobs. "It sure beats walking!" he said with a smile.
