

2020

JANUARY

Carpenter's Place Month In Review

GRATEFUL FOR HELPFUL VOLUNTEERS
Cheers and appreciation for Bill & Tom, our furniture pick-up volunteers!

A BOUNTIFUL BREAKFAST

Bev, Sharon, Kyle and Billie of Christ Our Savior Church provided and served delicious egg casseroles, fruit and bread. It was enjoyed by all!

CYCLES FOR CHANGE

Ralph was grateful to obtain a bike that will help him get around town.

KINDNESS ABOUNDS

Stephanie and Barb of Central Christian Church served an amazing enchilada bake and homemade desserts.

DELIVERING A DELICIOUS LUNCH

The Mending Club: Mending Hearts, Mending Relationships members Sandi, Maggie, Sandy, Renie, Elaine, Michelle, and Robin prepared and served a hearty sloppy joe lunch complete with sides and brownies!

ART FROM THE HEART

Pinto created a beautiful painting and presented it to Cathy, her case manager and our Director of Guest Services to hang in her office. Such expressions of appreciation are treasured at CP.

ADULTS IN CASE MANAGEMENT

MLK WOULD BE PROUD

On Martin Luther King Day, Kristine, Richard, Gracie, Marin & Michael put Dr. King's call to service into action. They got up quite early to prepare and serve a wonderful breakfast for our guests.

MORNING MEAL FROM MIDDLE CREEK CHURCH

Middle Creek Church members Karen, Betsy, Deb and Peggy greeted our guests with egg casserole, home-baked muffins and fruit.

JANUARY BIRTHDAYS

It was our joy to celebrate Jen, Christopher, Vaneatria, Amanda, Patti and Pinto who have January birthdays.

TEAMWORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK

Winnebago United Methodist Church and Dickerson & Nieman Realty joined forces to provide a bountiful breakfast of Casey's breakfast pizza, egg casseroles, and homemade cinnamon rolls for our guests. David, Pattie, Barb, Ginger, Gail, Jennifer, Jamie and Tracy were a super crew to start our day in a happy way!

STEPS TO SUCCESS

Proudly holding their resumes, Alex and Lisa are set for job interviews!
