JULY

Carpenter's Place Month In Review

A GUEST FAVORITE FOR LUNCH

Oh, yum! Central Christian Church provided a guest lunch favorite, Broaster chicken!

A HOME TO CALL HIS OWN

Craig gratefully holds the keys to his new apartment. As part of our PHP housing program, he will work with case manager, Jenny, to continue to rebuild his life through a wide array of support services.

SUBWAY DELIVERY

Teresa (left) gratefully accepted Katherine and Kasia's donation of Subway sandwiches, chips, soda and dessert for a tasty lunch for our guests.

CYCLES FOR CHANGE PROGRAM ROLLS ON

Robert and Monica received their bikes from CP just in time to ride them to their new jobs!

TEAMWORK PROVIDES BREAKFAST

CP intern Sheralyn (right) joyfully draws attention to kitchen manager Diane who prepared delicious warm sausage and cheese sandwiches with the ingredients generously provided by Faith Community Church Women's Ministry.

H2O SO GRATEFUL

Christ United Methodist Church members were the first to respond to our plea for bottled water during these hot days. That initial donation of 20 cases was followed by these 5 cases! I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink. Matthew 25:35

JULY GUEST MILESTONES

16 guests obtained housing

14 secured employment;
7 full time!

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS BREAKFAST DROP-OFF

Jenna graciously delivered McDonald's breakfast sandwiches, fruit cups and beverages provided by our CP Young Professionals Board. What a fun treat for our guests!

EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM AT WORK

Terry and Alice each are working part time at CP through a COVID-relief employment program administered by the Booker Washington African American Resource Center.

JULY BIRTHDAYS

So fun to celebrate the July birthdays of Tracy and Grace with gifts and treats!

EXTRAORDINARY GIFT OF CLASSIC BLUE JEANS

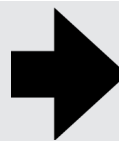

Blue jeans are an on-going need of those we serve. Through an extraordinary gift from Heartland Community Church we secured nearly 100 pairs! Our guests send their abundant thanks!

MUCH NEEDED WATER DONATION

Curt and Joyce delivered a generous donation of greatly-needed water. Thank You!
