JULY

CARPENTER'S PLACE MONTH IN REVIEW

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS BOARD EVENT

Big thanks to our Young Professionals Board for their hard work and dedication. They hosted a fun event and raised money for CP!

LUNCH DONATION FROM IKON ELECTRIC

Jordan from Ikon Electric brought a wonderful lunch of pizza, clementines, bananas and a couple cases of water. What a blessing!

JULY BIRTHDAYS!

We had a number of birthdays to celebrate during July! It's always a blessing to be able to celebrate our guests in this special way. Each guest received a little gift bag filled with fun and useful items. We wish them all the best in the year ahead!

CASE MANAGEMENT IN ACTION!

Julius eagerly works with his case manager Tina, setting and achieving his life goals.

FAMILY SERVICES UPDATE

Family Services Program staff worked with 28 families in July, providing 374 case management sessions.

STEPS TO STABILITY HIGHLIGHTS

- » 1 family obtained housing; CP provided financial assistance and furniture
- » 1 head of household obtained full-time employment

NEW POTS & PANS

Kitchen Manager, Cindy and Director of Guest Services, Crystal were thrilled to receive two brand new sets of pots and pans from an anonymous donor for our housing programs! We can still use more sets, if you're able to donate! See our critical needs for August on the back page.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL PREPARATIONS... SET FOR SUCCESS!

Preparing 42 back-to-school bags with supplies, uniforms, underwear and gym shoes was a big job Britney and Brianna gladly tackled for the kiddos in our Family Services Program. And just to be sure nobody will feel left out, Brianna also put together 17 "mini" backpacks for our preschool and toddlers. HUGE THANKS to our donors who made this possible. Deliveries are set for August.

CALLED TO SERVE

Seminary student David Hegge from Westminster Church and CP guest Raymond served a delicious pulled-pork lunch provided by Cross and Crown.

BBQ LUNCH

Thanks to Kim and Les of Riverside Community Church for providing all the fixings for a BBQ lunch.
