CARPENTER'S PLACE MONTH IN REVIEW

YOUNG SERVERS STEP UP

Nathan, Gavin, Amy, Sam, Johnny and Ashley worked together to serve a scrumptious meal (provided by Jeffrey Glass) to our guests. CP loves to see the young people in the community get involved.

BREAKING BREAD TOGETHER

Our adult housing programs each held an early Thanksgiving feast, with all the fixings. Eric, Paul, case manager Tina and Kamil enjoyed this special get-together.

OUR BOARDS ROCK!

(Left) Guest Donnell is grateful to receive a nice hot meal provided by our Board of Directors. Guest Intern Brian helps serve with board members Tom and Katie. (Right) Members of our Young Professional Board, Jenna and Eric, provided and served pizza and salad (yum) to our guests.

A BOUNTIFUL THANKSGIVING FOR FAMILIES

Tiara is all smiles as she accepts a donation of a Thanksgiving dinner, including sides and desserts. Every family in our program received a meal to prepare.

KEEPING GUESTS WARM ...

New Leaf Remodeling (top) and Knights of Columbus (below) from Holy Family Catholic Church brought in warm winter coats and other much needed items. Our guests will be extremely grateful for these as we begin the winter season.

...AND TOES TOASTY!

Students at Holy Family Catholic School held a drive, collecting socks for people of all ages. What a beautiful blessing!

FAMILIES FIND HOUSING

Welcome home to Daijah (shown on the left), who is expecting a son in December, as well as Jasmin (right) and her two children, all of whom have obtained housing as they continue to rebuild their lives.
